Calypso is more than a name. It is a memory from childhood.

"It reminds me of how time felt when we were little: the endless summers, the days that were never ending, the feeling of freedom and excitement I had.

Many of us had our own imaginary friend when we were little, which existed only in our little world, but somehow felt completely real. For me, that was Calypso, my imaginary horse.

This rooftop was born exactly from those emotions felt in childhood: freedom, imagination, excitement, and enjoying every moment.

Calypso is a place where time slows down, where each one of us can find our own Calypso moment in different ways, whether it is a night that lasts longer than expected, a memorable sunset, or just a simple night that is spent without rushing.

Calypso is a feeling, an emotion.

It is about reconnecting with a feeling we all once had.
More than a rooftop bar, it is an escape from reality, a place where you forget about your worries."

Welcome to Calypso.
